Paper 357-2010

Survey Says: The State of IT

Bob Melk, CIO Magazine

ABSTRACT

The session kicks off with a presentation from Bob Melk, group publisher of CXO Media, including CIO Magazine. Bob will deliver key research insights on the topic "The State of IT", allowing you to benchmark your organization against cumulative IT trends. Hear the top concerns of IT executives and how they plan to tackle those issues in 2010. You will also have the opportunity to weigh in on those topics as well as seek advice from peers and industry experts during the audience participation segment.
