The following guidelines set forth the terms and methods by which a Customer may enroll in the JMP Training Advantage Program ("Program").

GUIDELINES

- Program effective date: January 1, 2010.
- To request enrollment in the Program, Customer completes and returns the JMP Training Advantage Program Enrollment Form to the JMP Education Account Representative.
- Training cannot be scheduled until payment is received.
- The Program expires twelve (12) months from the date payment is received. Customer must complete training in this time frame. There are no refunds for unused training days.
- Class sizes are limited to fifteen (15) students.
- The Program provides five (5) days or more of instruction at the Customer's site for the discounted price of $2,200 per day.
- The discounted price does not include, and Customer is responsible for the payment of, the following:
 - Expenses SAS incurs in delivering the program services.
 - Taxes incurred by Customer in the course of delivering program services.
 - Any public training course, or courses in the Business Knowledge Series.
 - Live Web classes.
 - Six Sigma courses.
 - The rental fee for an on-site training conducted at a SAS training facility.
- SAS deliverable shall consist solely of the days of training provided to the Customer.
- Customer shall make the training program and training program materials available to its employees and on-site contractors only.
- Customer is responsible for furnishing all facilities and equipment required for the provision of training under this Program, including, but not limited to, computer terminals, audio-visual equipment and classroom space. Customer is also responsible for ensuring that the Software required to perform this training under this Program is properly licensed, installed and available for access as necessary.
- No other discounts apply.
- Offer valid only for training delivered in the continental United States, Alaska and Hawaii. Offer expires December 31, 2010.

Cancellation Policy

The Customer may cancel on-site courses without charge if notification is received by SAS by phone or in writing no later than 21 days prior to the course start date. Rescheduling a course less than 21 days prior to course start date is considered a cancellation, and a cancellation fee of $750 per day for the total number of scheduled days will be charged and invoiced separately. In addition, if non-refundable airline tickets have been purchased for SAS personnel with Customer's approval, Customer will be responsible for the cost of these tickets.
