SAS® Business and Financial Intelligence, a Powerful Combination

Joe Spears, SAS Institute Inc.

ABSTRACT

SAS® Financial Intelligence is built on SAS’ award-winning information delivery architecture (BI) and ensures the integrity and rapid availability of business results, while providing built-in financial intelligence for managing financial information and automating financial processes.

SAS Financial Intelligence provides a consistent approach to an organization's spectrum of financial management needs including budgeting, planning forecasting, cost management consolidation, reporting, and analysis driving a performance management approach to business.

SAS business and financial Intelligence gives you the power to:

• Drive Strategic Decisions: Sustain and improve shareholder value by mapping out and executing your strategies and tracking performance.
• Optimize Business Performance: Ensure the financial health of your organization by managing key tangible and intangible assets to your organization.
• Manage Financial Risk: Identify and monitor new opportunities, business trends, and competitive threats.
